

Save Your Couch From Cat Scratching V1 — Action Checklist

GENERATED May 28, 2026 | Print this page and keep it somewhere visible

- ☐ Keep their claws healthy by shedding outer nail layers. Mark territory (visual marks + sce...
- ☐ This guide uses three coordinated approaches. Using one alone can help. Using all three to...
- ☐ 1. Wrong material. Carpet is the most common post material. Most cats don't like it b...
- ☐ 3. Wrong placement. Putting a scratching post in a corner no one uses is asking the cat to...
- ☐ Step 1: Place the new scratching post directly next to the couch. Put it at the exact heig...
- ☐ Step 2: When the cat consistently uses the post (2-3 weeks), move it 6 inches toward your ...
- ☐ This works because you are not asking the cat to change behavior — you are simply giving t...
- ☐ Carpet — avoid unless your cat specifically responds to it and you are replacing carpet wi...
- ☐ While you retrain the scratching habit, the couch needs to be less appealing than the post...
- ☐ Double-sided tape: Products like Cat西斯 (no brand preference) make surfaces feel sticky. Mo...
- ☐ Keep the deterrent in place for a minimum of 3-4 weeks. The cat needs to fully stop associ...
- ☐ Soft nail caps (commonly sold under brands like Soft Claws or Docs) glue onto a cat's...

Companion to the full guide in your Lemon Squeazy library — check off each item as you complete it.